

Budgeting for Success

Duration:

One day

Objective

Line managers are frequently delegated the responsibility of budgetary preparation and control yet often have no prior experience or formal training. This course is designed to provide middle management with a comprehensive introduction to understanding, preparing and managing budgets successfully.

Contents

The basic principles of budget preparation and control
Develop your confidence in making calculated and informed financial decisions
How to communicate budget information clearly and precisely
How to develop realistic budgets
Effective and confident budget control

Who should attend

This budgeting training workshop is designed for managers and professionals in non-financial roles who have responsibility for financial matters and those who need to know more about finance to improve their planning, costing and budgeting skills.

Course benefits

Delegates on this budgeting course will enhance their confidence by understanding key areas such as the barriers to effective budgeting, the role of the budget within the Business Plan and effective planning and preparation.

Additional information

This course is part of a suite of financial training programmes we are able to offer at varying managerial levels.

Certificates

All delegates who successfully complete this course will receive a certificate of attendance.

Trainers background

The trainer for this course has extensive experience in design and delivery of financial training programmes. They are a practising qualified Chartered Accountant and have previously delivered this particular programme in public and private sector industries throughout the UK and Europe.